Dr. Bill Crawford

Psychologist & Founder of Crawford Performance & The Top of the Mind Institute

Workshop A - Clarity, Confidence, & Creativity: An Advance on the Science of Success

Session will be conducted by Dr. Crawford:

- Advanced tools for accessing the clear, confident, and creative parts of the brain while avoiding the area of the brain responsible for stress, frustration, anger, and indecision (regardless of the situation).
- Advanced strategies for influencing others by getting past their "gatekeeper," or the part of the brain that decides what is important, and thus whom it will listen to and trust.

Dr. Crawford is a renown psychologist who has written quite a few books. He is an international key note speaker, who has spoken at many institutions such as law firms, financial institutions including banks and insurance companies as well non financial companies. His session will teach persons how to utilize their brain in the most productive manner. The four hour session will provide participants with advanced strategies which will enable you to also influence others so as to enable efficient and effective productivity. In these difficult economic times, when employees have to multitask productivity is extremely important. Dr. Crawford is an excellent speaker who always gets excellent reviews. His strategies have been proven to work extremely well. In addition, each participant will have continued access to Dr. Crawford as a coach and consultant by phone and email for a year following this advanced workshop.
